BUMORED THAT DEPOSITORS WILL GET DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR

That the depositors of the defunct bank of George Alexander & Co., will receive dollar for dollar for the amount they had on deposit when the institution failed is the substance of rumor that is in circulation. This, however, cannot be verified, owing to the reticease of those involved, but it is said attorneys who are to represent the tockholders of the concern have advised them to be prepared to meet the demands of the depositors. This, it is said, they have agreed to do as soon as the affairs of the bank have been straightened out.

The obligations of the bank aside from the personal indebtedness of Alexander it is estimated will exceed $130,000.
